AMELIA EARHART IS MISSING AS SEARCH SPRINGS IN ACTION

NAVY SENDS BATTLESHIPS AND AIRPLANES TO ASSIST IN SEARCH AMELIA EARHART

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, July 3, — Repeated radio calls—"SOS KHAQQ", the call letters of Amelia Earhart's plane, were heard for several minutes shortly after 1:30 A. M. Pacific Standard Time today. Two hours later, the same feeble messages, with the figures 179 and 16, were heard. The later figures are believed to have been intended to be 1.6. The first figure is believed to represent the longitude and the latter, latitude, but no one was able to say whether West or East longitude or North and South latitude.

The position of the plane, according to the best deductions would place Amelia and her companion Noonan, between 100 and 200 miles of Howland Is., near the equator, on her flight from Lea, New Guinea.

The plane was last heard from in the air at 11:12 A. M. PST yesterday, when she and Noonan reported they could not sight land, and were nearly out of gas. It is thought they are within a hundred miles of Howland Island.

Washington, July 3, —The U. S. Navy ordered the U. S. battleship Colorado, which arrived at Honolulu yesterday, to proceed to Howland Island and join the search for Amelia Earhart. The ship carries three planes, and in addition, aboard, is the Naval Reserve Unit of the University of Washington.

Honolulu, July 3, — One of the Navy's crack flying boats is speeding toward Howland Is., to join the cutter Itasca stationed there and also to contact the Navy mine sweeper Swan which has been stationed between Howland Is. and Honolulu to watch the next stage of the flight. The plane will secure fuel from these ships and immediately search for the missing Earhart plane.

Big Dance Begins 9:30 P.M. Tonite Adm. Free

Definite and final arrangements for Nome's Fourth of July Celebration, were completed at last night's meeting of the Committees.

Gallons and gallons of ice cream are to be given away Monday, the day of observation, immediately following the literary exercises at the school auditorium at 11 a.m. Chief Laws in charge of dishing up the ice cream said after these exercises should the youngsters should line up right after the exercises, and that nothing would be given out until the literary program was over.

The dance committee for tonight's affair, reported the hall was brilliantly decorated and everything ready for full evening's entertainment. Dancing will commence at 9:30 p.m. Late decisions by the committee, are to effect, no admission charge.

A fine literary program has been prepared and little doubt is held that Monday morning will see the auditorium jammed to capacity. For particulars you are referred to the full program of events for Monday, appearing on page one.

Some fine athletic events will be pulled off this year, and you may be assured of a surprise feature in the person of an Oomik Race between the two bitterest rivals in Nome—the Hammon and Commercial Indoor baseball teams who will engage in this speed classic as a display of sportsmanship and for the entertainment of the crowd. The prize, a case of beer will go to the winner—and to the losing boat—the empties.

Only one important feature has so far escaped the diligent efforts of the Committee, and that is to secure the promise of every business house in Nome, to decorate with bunting or flags, both on the Fourth of July tomorrow, and on Monday, the day of the formal observation.

It is hoped, said officials of the committee, that the decorations will appear.

Business houses will observe Monday, July 5th, as a holiday in accordance with law, when national holidays fall on Sunday. Federal offices, city, bank, and other businesses will be closed Monday. The U. S. Signal Corps will observe holiday hours, and the Nome Daily Nugget will not be issued on that day.
